

Washington Elementary Parent Involvement Plan

The Washington Elementary Parent Involvement Plan has been developed by the Site Council. Parents are encouraged to be part of the site Council as decisions are made regarding their children's education.

Distribution Information:

- Parents can access updated school information and student academic information at the school's website and P.A.L.
- The Parent Involvement Plan will appear in the Parent-Student Handbook and on the school website. A copy of this plan will be sent home annually to parents.
- Information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities will be communicated in both English and Spanish to parents through timely notes and invitations sent home with students and will be accessible on Peach Jar and Facebook.
- Classroom teachers will provide achievement test information during conferences, meetings, and through printed information that is sent home.
- The Teacher-Student-Parent compact outlines how teachers, students, and parents will share the responsibility for improved student achievement.

Parent Participation:

- Parents will receive materials and have opportunities to participate in school-family activities planned throughout the year. These activities will support students in reading and math which data shows a need for improvement in these areas.
- Parents will have opportunities to participate in school decision-making regarding the education of their children through Back to School Night, Site Council, PBIS team, and individual parent conferences.
- Parents will be encouraged to work jointly with the school to develop a Teacher-Student-Parent Contract.
- The school will provide opportunities for individual conferences, as requested by parents, to ask questions about the District's curriculum to formulate suggestions and to make decisions regarding the education of their children.
- Within established parameters, parents are encouraged to observe instruction and other activities that involve his/her child.
- Parents are encouraged to volunteer to help at school, whether in their child's classroom as a VIM or at school events.

Meetings:

- Parents will be informed at the annual Back to School Night and through notices sent home of the school's participation in the Title I program, the requirements of the program, and their rights to be involved.
- Parent meetings and conferences will be held at various times to accommodate the needs of families. Interpreters will be provided as needed.
- Quarterly Parent Booster Club meetings.
